

Nick Farr-Jones: The Authorised Biography

This is the autobiography of one of Australia's most celebrated rugby union captains. It tells the story of the development and achievements of the much lauded world championship team as well as an account of a career of a master sportsman. The book covers the historic win over the All Blacks, the World Cup victory and the incredible tour of South Africa. It describes the building of the victorious teams, how the A style was perfected and gives unique insights into the ties of rugby. The book also tells of Nick Farr-Jones' life in rugby - how he entered the game and rose to the top.
