

Crimson Kisses

An exploration of the darker side of love..... a paranormal lesbian romance. A beautiful story, says D. L. King, highly acclaimed writer, author of The Melinoe Project and editor of award winning erotic anthologies including the Lambda Literary Award finalist Where the Girls are: Urban Lesbian Erotica and the Independent Publishers Award Gold Medallist Carnal Machines: Steampunk Erotica. In the short story Crimson Kisses, Maya wonders if her broken heart can ever be healed after she is deserted by her lover, Bharti. But her solitude is eased when she takes in a mysterious stray cat who provides the unconditional love she desires. Or so she believes. But in her dreams she experiences increasingly dark and sinister erotic fantasies. She begins to retreat from reality, preferring the twilight world she shares with her supernatural shapeshifter lover, and discovers that the profound love she desires so powerfully is within her reach. At a terrifying price. In Bleeding: anatomy of an erotic obsession, the narrator uses poetry to chart an intense and ultimately destructive love affair. Cover design Klaus Hartleben
