

MY LIFE AS A PRIEST: An Essay by Tom Phelan

When I look back, I don't think of myself as having left the priesthood. I think of myself as having successfully escaped.

In his riveting and eye-opening essay MY LIFE AS A PRIEST, Irish novelist Tom Phelan looks back on the eleven years he spent as a Catholic priest. Phelan, who was born and raised in County Laois in the Irish midlands, is the author of the novels IN THE SEASON OF THE DAISIES, ISCARIOT, DERRYCLONEY, THE CANAL BRIDGE, NAILER, and LIES THE MUSHROOM PICKERS TOLD. He has also written for the IRISH ECHO, NEWSDAY, and other publications.

Phelan's first novel was selected by Barnes & Noble for its Discover Great New Writers series and was a finalist for the Discover award. MY LIFE AS A PRIEST, about 3000 words long, is followed by information about Tom and his novels.
