

Nero Caesar Augustus: Emperor of Rome

Propelled to power by the age of 17 by an ambitious mother, self-indulgent to the point of criminality, inadequate, paranoid and the perpetrator of heinous crimes including matricide and fratricide, and deposed and killed by 31, Nero is one of Rome's most infamous Emperors. But has history treated him fairly? Or is the popular view of Nero as a capricious and depraved individual a travesty of the truth and a gross injustice to Rome's fifth emperor? This new biography will look at Nero's life with fresh eyes. While showing the man's warts and all, it also casts a critical eye on the libels which were perpetrated on him, such as claiming he was a madman, many of which were most probably made up to suit the needs of the Flavians, who had overthrown his dynasty.

Claudius was Roman emperor from 41 to 54. A member of the Julio-Claudian dynasty, he was Tiberius Claudius Caesar Augustus Germanicus. His 13-year reign (slightly longer than Nero's) would not be surpassed by any, and seal with the gold itself this was a fashion invented when Claudius Caesar was emperor.
