

Three sisters. Three witches. One hundred years after the Salem witch trials. Time is running out to stop a deadly curse... Bridget Goodwell is the daughter of one of Salem's most prominent Congregationalist ministers. Although she is almost twenty-one years and long past the prime age of marriage, in three months time she will finally wed Peter Holton, a wealthy law student from a respectable family. Bridget's future seems secure and bright. Except for the fact that Bridget is hiding a terrible secret. She is able to set things on fire by willing it so. All of her life she's successfully hidden her unnatural ability from family and friends. But just three weeks before her wedding, her secret is threatened when her childhood nemesis and first true love, Benjamin Hawkes, sails back into town with trouble on his mind.
